

Freddie Baker, Senior Policy Officer, Information Commissioner's Office

Freddie has recently joined the Information Commissioner's Office as a Senior Policy Officer within the Public Sector team of the ICO's Policy and Engagement Department.

Freddie works with key stakeholders across health, education and local government sectors providing guidance on data protection reform.

Freddie previously spent eight years working in the NHS, most recently within the Information Governance department of a large acute Trust and has experience in preparing organisations for the GDPR.

Freddie Baker
Senior Policy Officer